Dear Funairi High School students,

With a heavy heart, I must tell you that I am leaving Funairi High School. Please know that I will miss you all very much.

Short but sweet. These three words describe my experience at Funairi High School. One year is just too short!

However, everyone made it unforgettable.

Whether I am teaching you English or you teaching me tea ceremony, calligraphy, or koto, one thing is clear: You made teaching worthwhile.

I believe that learning is a lifetime experience. Teachers are constantly attaining more knowledge because of you. Learning is the food for growth.

Ofcourse, we want you to be "you," but we want you to be the best you. Learning is fun. Communicating with friends, challenging others' opinions, helping someone new - whatever it is, end it with a laugh and smile (Funairi's ESS club showed me this!).

Although I am moving to another school, you are sure to see me around Hiroshima. If you chance to see me, do not hesitate to say "hi" and have a short chat. Anyway, I will miss you, and I cannot wait to see the future you!

See you around!

See
